- 25X1X 1. [REDACTED] the former President of Ecuador, Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra, was fully aware of the impending revolution that ousted him from office, in fact he was said to have actually helped bring it about in order to effect his safe departure from Ecuador. He is said to have been utterly disgusted with the corruption and lack of cooperation which existed there and to have prepared for his departure in advance.
2. It is further reported that Velasco would do nothing but protest mildly against the military coup and would never again participate in Ecuadorian public affairs.
